

Donor Milk for Well Babies

Carol Chornock, RN, MSN, IBCLC

Nurse Manager of Lactation and Patient Education

Milk Depot Coordinator

Adventist Health Care at Shady Grove Medical Center

TOPICS

Donor Milk Depot and Program Origins

Cost

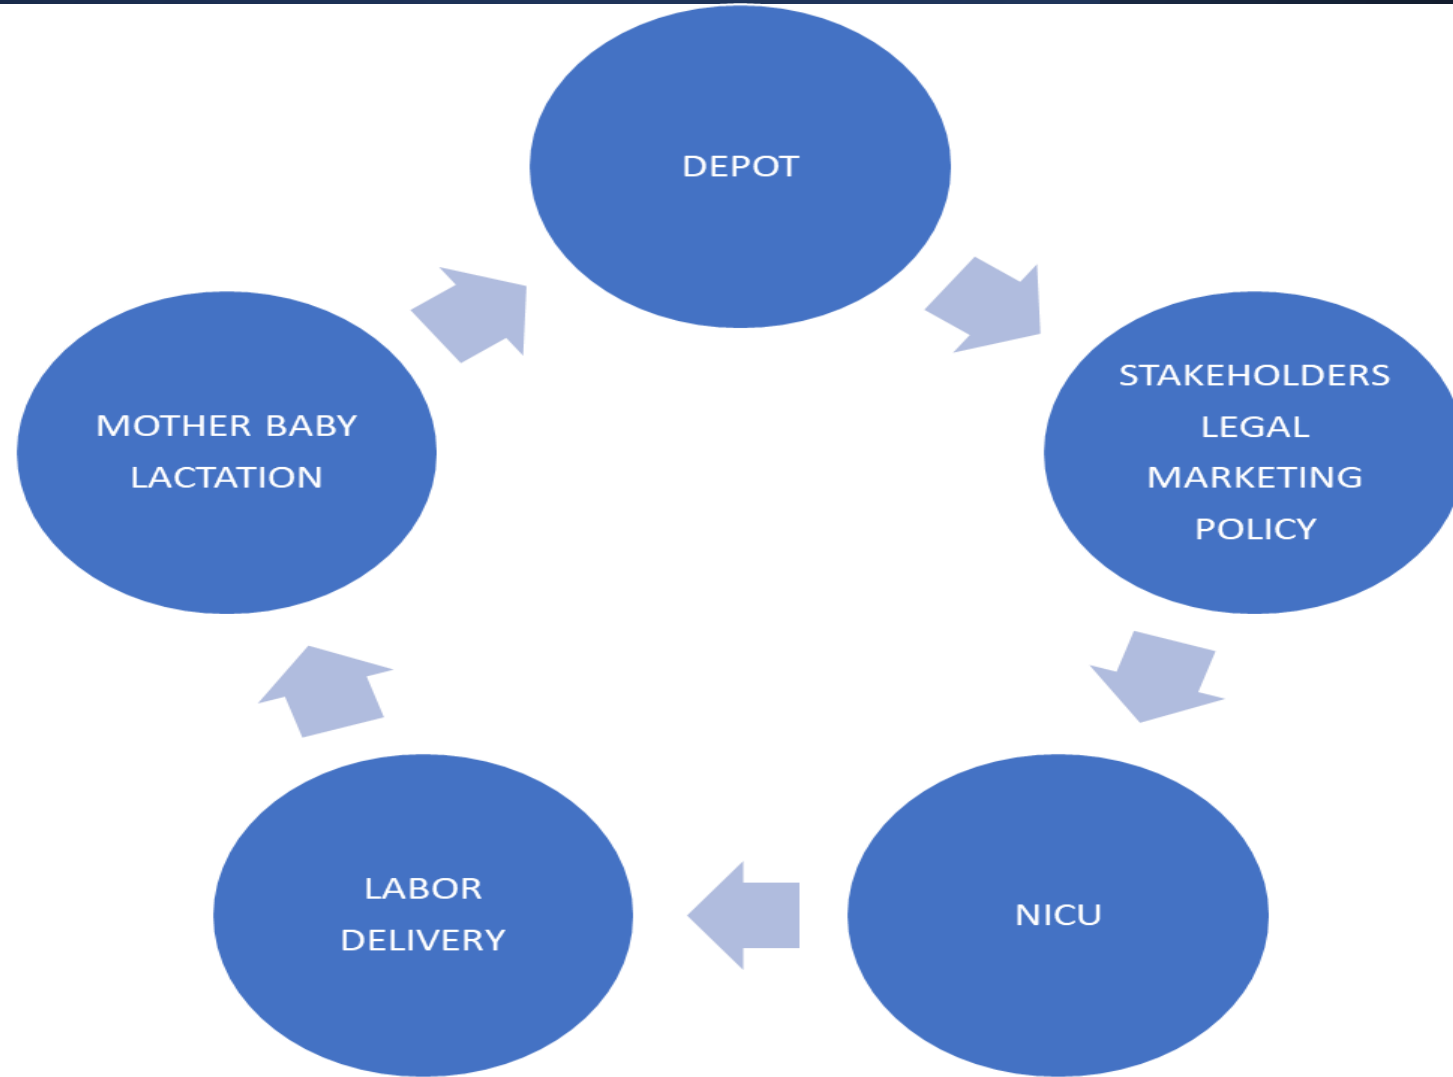

Practices and Policies

Donor Milk Education for Staff and Families

EBM brought in from Home

COST

DEPOT

- Milk Bank covers all cost for equipment
- Marketing – brochures and education
- Maintenance of DM cost through depot
- Community Service Hours

DONOR MILK PROGRAM

- Donor milk purchase through mother baby cost center
- Lactation cost center
  - Equipment, marketing, education
- Baby Friendly Hospitals pay for formula
  - Donor milk much more cost effective
  - Foundation for grant monies

Practices and Policies

- English and Spanish
- New form (refusal) if formula given
- Risks

- Parent's choice
- Twins
- Orders

- Handling and storage

Education

Donor requirements

Storage and Handling

Documentation

Benefits

- Families
- Providers
- Human milk for human babies

Prenatally Expressed Breastmilk

SGMC does not support the use of unlabeled EBM

CDC recognized EBM as a food source NOT bodily fluid

Family lounge refrigerator

Private cooler and labeled

Family responsibility

Patients in all parts of the hospital expressing milk will keep EBM on the unit

Covid

EBM left behind

Cooler and ice / Unit Refrigerator

Questions?

Carol Chornock, RN, MSN, IBCLC
cchornoc@adventisthealthcare.com
240-826-7523